ELA/Writing

This month we will be reading in our Anthology: Dex: The Heart of a Hero, Penguin Chick, Gloria Who Might Be My Best Friend, and The Goat in the Rug. We will be working on the following comprehension strategies: Compare and Contrast, Main Ideas and Details, Figurative Language, Drawing Conclusions, Sequence of Events, Classify & Categorize and Sequence. In grammar we will cover using commas in a series, adjectives, and irregular verbs.

Also, we will be continuing our unit on non-fiction writing by researching our findings for our All About books.

Math

For this month, we will collect and display data on picture and bar graphs. We will also solve comparison number stories and two-step number stories using change diagrams, part-and-total diagrams, and comparison diagrams. We will explore different strategies for addition, including partial-sums addition.
